

Anton Mosimann

Life is a circus

Son of a restaurant owner, he is a top ranking chef de cuisine, purveyor to the Royal Household and licensed private detective, Swiss wrestler and honorary doctor, celebrity and father, Officer of the British Empire (OBE) and rally driver: Anton Mosimann has lived many lives. In his comprehensive biography he relates how he learnt from eccentric chefs, laughed with modest superstars, cooked for talented criminals, played cards with merry millionaires, philosophised with crowned royals and ate with hearty homeless people. Mosimann is blatantly honest, even with the hard times, yet always has a twinkle in his eye.

This lavishly designed and richly illustrated book is being published on the occasion of Anton Mosimann's 70th birthday. It includes portfolios of exclusive photographs of famous people, personal dedications and recipes.
